CHARITY FOR INFANTS.

CONDITION OF THE NEW-YORK ASYLUM. THE MANAGEMENT ATTACKED-WHAT IS SAID IN ITS

Theodore Roosevelt and Theodore Kane Gibbs, members of the Board of Managers of the New-York Infant Asylum, yesterday forwarded to the Commissioners of the State Board of Charities for the County of New-York the following communication:

The undersigned members of the Board of Managers of the New-York Infant Asylum beg leave to call your attention to the facts stated below: First, up to last December the medical and sanitary management of the asylum had been satisfactory. In that month the president, Mr. Clark Bell, and some other members of the Board of Managers, by the aid of the ex-officion members of the Board, who were called in to take part in the proceedings of the Board for the first time in many years, if not for the first time in the history of the institution, and by what we cannot refrain from styling a most unscrupulous device, obtained control of the Board, and the president, Mr. Clark Bell, then proceeded to deprive the medical management of the Asylum; although the medical members of the Board of all share in the management of the asylum; and the undersigned were only prevented from resigning by the earnest request of the medical members of the Board that they should not be left latone in their efforts to fight off the misfortunes which the radical change in the medical members, the Board, and she cannot referred the medical members, the president in July happened.

the frightful mortality that has prevailed during her term of service.

Fourth—These various acts of the majority of the Board, and of the president, acting under the authority of that majority, the undersigned, and more especially the medical members, protested against, as being in the highest degree injudicious and dangerous to the welfare of the institution; but no attention was paid to their protests. In view of the above facts we respectfully ask for an investigation into the present management of the asylum, as we firmly believe that as managed for the past few months it is a curse and not a blessing to those for whose benefit it it supposed to exist. We also would like to call your attention to the financial and executive management of the asylum.

the Asylum, after reading the communication said to a Tribunk reporter:

"The assault of Messrs. Roosevelt and Gibbs, which is given to the public under cover of a request for an investigation into the affairs of the institution, explains some matters which have lately appeared in the newspapers of the city. Two issues divided the managers at the annual meeting in January: first, the employment of resident female physicians; and second, the reorganization of the Medical Board. It was decided that the best interests of the asylum would be subserved by a complete reorganization of its medical service, in which the most eminent men in the profession should be selected for the medical work. The Board of Managers instructed me to arrange the details of the matter and perfect the organization of the Medical Board. This change, however, met with the most desperate and determined opposition on the part of the medical men, particularly of Drs. H. D. Nicoll and F. A. Burrall. The former used his personal influence and that of his friends to prevent physicians from serving on the Board. He induced several to resign who had already accepted positions.

"This was the beginning of a war which has been waging nearly a year against the management. No notice was given of the recent investigation, but at its close I was invited to appear before the coroner's jury and I did so. I was browbeaten by its members and treated in a disgraceful manner. They refused to allow the institution to be represented by counsel before them and not one of the Medical Board was permitted to be sworn although I carnestly requested that that privilege be accorded its members. As to the appointment of Dr. Marr, I would say that she came to us highly recommended from Mrs. Dr. Du Bois, directress of the Nursery and Child's Hospital, and by the Dean of the Women's Medical College of Philadelphia. She has displayed unusual abilitity and self-reliance in the discharge of her duties and has met the outrageous assaults which have been made upon her with a fo regard to the justice of the vertice of the Board of inry.

George H. Clark, a member of the Board of Managers, asserted that he believed that the criticisms which have been made of the management of the institution were unjust. The members of the Board were all honorable men, and were too conscientions to allow any crockedness in its proceedings. Dr. Henry D. Nicoll, another member of the Board of Managers, said that he was heartily in accord with the views expressed by Messrs. Gibbs and Roosevelt in their communication to the Board of Charities.

Rosevelt in their communication to the Board of Charities,
Richard B. Kimball told the reporter that the object of introducing new blood into the medical staff was to prevent that body from falling into the hands of a medical clique. The plan he believed to be a wise one, as it broadened the influence and scope of the work done in the asylum. He said that while Messrs. Gibbs and Rosevelt had pointed out in their paper the marked increase in the death-rate they had forgotten to draw attention to the cause, namely an epidemic of measles of the most dangerous nature.

Missiment not to exceed a year in prison and $250 fine.

The trial of Policeman McNamara, who was charged with manslaughter in killing John Smith, by clubbing him while under arrest in Elizabethst, on August 29, was finished yesterday in the Court of General Sessions. The prisoner was not called to the stand in his own defence. The only important witnesses heard for the defence were two police officers. Policeman Buckley of the Thirty-seventh-st. station, testified that he arrested Smith in July, 1879, for the murder of John Baptisto Marsino, who was killed by a blow with a pair of ice-tongs. Smith pleaded guilty to manslaughter and received a sentence of three years and six months in the State Prison. Policeman Tighe, who was for several years on post in the portion of Mulberry-st, in which Smith was killed, testified that he considered it a dangerous part of the city. There were many brawls in the street and an officer was liable to assault. The witness had himself been assaulted while on duty, and showed a mark on his head that was the result of injuries then received. Deputy Coroner Donlin testified that the injury received by Smith might have been caused by a fall on the curb-stone. In answer to a question by the prosecution, officer, Dr. Donlin said that the wound might also have been very easily inflicted by a blow from a policeman's club in the hands of a powerful officer as McNamara.

Colonel Spencer made the closing argument for the prosecution, and Assistant District-Attorney Fellows made a vigorous plea for conviction.

Judge Gildersleeve in his charge to the jury explained the nature of the different grades of offence for any one of which the prisoner might be convicted. The jury were absent from the court for about three hours, when they returned and announced they had agreed on a verdict. McNamara with the stolid expression that had marked him all through the trial looked at the jury as the foreman announced the verdict, "Guilty of assault in the third degree, and not guilty of manslaughter in th

PARKS IN THE ANNEXED DISTRICT.

The commission appointed to select and recommend sites for parks in the Twenty-third and Twenty-fourth Words met again yesterday in the Mayor's office. Luther R. Marsh presided. Secretary Mullaly read a communication from the Land Improvement Association, composed of taxpayers of the annexed territory, recommending the Bathgate farm, comprising about 100 acres, and bounded by Boston-ave., One-hundred-and-seventy-first-st., Locust, and Fordham and Third aves. Lorillard's Woods, comprising about 100 acres, adjoining St. John's College, were also recommended. For smaller parks the association recommended St. Mary's Park, containing twenty-five acres, and the Zabrinski estate, containing fifty acres. The Taxpayers' Association wished the commission to consider the Morris estate, the Bathgate farm, St. Mary's Park, the Fox estate and the plot of ground formerly known as Morrisania Cemetery, all being suitable for parks.

John M. Beck favored Parrett's Point, Leggett's Point, Spofford's Point and Clausen Point, all on Long Island Sound, and within the limits of the city, except Clausen Peint, Robert W. Shannon objected to the Cortlandt estate. He favored a pumber of smaller parks. Colonel Robert M. Hoe favored laying out one large park and several smaller ones. Charles D. Burrill thought that there smaller ones. Charles D. Burrill thought that there should be one large park in the northwestern corner of the Twenty-third Ward. Hugh N. Camp fayored the Cortland testate as admirably adapted by its situation for a park. Civil Justice Angel, representing the Local Improvement Association of the annexed territory, urged the choice of the sites recommended by that body in its communication. Andrew J. Rogers favored a number of small parks in various parts of the annexed territory. S. S. Randall wished one or two large parks and several smaller ones. Professor Dundon, of the Normal College, spoke in favor of one large park, central in location. The city would probably have a world's fair before long, and in laying out a park in the annexed territory this should be taken into consideration.

THE NEW TIME STANDARD.

PROBABILITY OF ITS ADOPTION HERE. ADVANTAGES THAT WILL FOLLOW, ESPECIALLY FOR THE SHIPPING INTERESTS.

"I have just received a telegram from the Grand Trunk of Canada people," said W. F. Allen, secretary of the General Railway Time Convention, yesterday, "saying that they will adopt the proposed 'hour' standard time system for the running of their trains on November 4. One of the absurd instances of the present multiplicity of railroad time standards can be found on this road. From Toronto to Port Huron trains on the Grand Trunk division are run on Toronto time, while the Great Western road, under the same management, is run on Hamilton (Canada) time, which differs two minutes from Toronto. The best illustration of the complications of the existing system is supplied by Western road, under the same management, is run on Hamilton (Canada) time, which differs two minutes from Toronto. The best illustration of the complications of the existing system is supplied by trains to the South. From Boston to Providence Boston time is the standard for running trains; from Providence to New-London, Providence time; from Providence to New-London, Providence time; from New-London to New-York, New-York time; from New-London to New-York, New-York time; and south of Washington, Baltimore time; and south of Washington, Baltimore time; and south of Washington, the time of that city is the standard. By the New-York Central and the Lake Shore to San Francisco six different standards are now used; under the new system only four standards will govern the roads. Nearly all the roads of the country have pledged themselves to adopt the new standard time whenever they change their autumn schedules. Those roads which will make no change will adopt the new standard as secon as practicable."

No arrangements have yet been made for having the New-York authorities conform the city clocks to the standard for the Eastern district, which is the seventy-fifth meridan time. This is only four minutes slower than the present New-York time, and the difference is so slight that it is believed that people will conform readily to the new railroad time when it is put into effect by resetting their clocks and watches. The Western Union Telegraph Company has under consideration the question of dropping its time-ball at the new seventy-fifth meridan time. It has not committed itself to the change, but regards it favorably. The shipping interest is the one most affected by the proposed change in the time standard here. If the seventy-fifth meridian time is adopted ship-masters in regulating their chronometers will be saved the trouble of calculating all the minutes and seconds in the present difference between New-York and Greenwich time, the latter being the standard time for marine interests. The proposed time at which the ing all the limites and seconds in the present each ence between New-York and Greenwich time, the latter being the standard time for marine interests. The proposed time at which the Western Union ball would be dropped under the new system is an even five hours' difference from Greenwich time. The Boston authorities have already committed themselves to the proposed change. Mr. Allen thinks that there will be little difference in conforming the time of towns and cities to the new railroad time. "For instance," he said, "all the principal places between New-York and Buffalo along the line of the New-York Central conform to the time standard of that road, and if the company changes there is little doubt doubt that these places will follow its action. Before the Gould Southwestern system was consolidated the towns along the different roads followed the different time standards of the companies. When the consolidation was effected Jefferson City time was taken as the standard for running the trains on the entire system. The towns immediately conformed their time-pieces to the change."

MURDER IN THE SECOND DEGREE. DANIEL COURTNEY SENT TO PRISON FOR LIFE FOR SHOOTING THOMAS YOUNG.

Daniel Courtney, who gave his business as that of a bar-tender, was convicted yesterday in the Court of General Sessions of the murder of Thomas Young in a low grog-shep in South-st., on September 5. The killing, according to the account of the witnesses, was of the most unprovoked character. Courtney, who had been on a debauch, lay on a table in the back room of the store. Several men who lodged in rooms over the bar-room were seated about the room. Courtney appeared to be sleeping, Young a longshoreman, entered the room about 5 o'clock and took a chair close to the table where Courtney lay. One of the men heard Courtney say: "Get out of here." The next moment Courtney raised himself on one elbow and put his hand to his hip-pocket. The spectators saw something shining ney replaced the revolver in his pocket and left the room. Young had been killed instantly, the buillet entering his brain.

Deputy Coroner Donlin testified as to the position and effect of the wound. Louis Meyer, the barkeeper at No. 199 South-st., and William Shaw, Matthew Welsh and James Davis, lodgers who saw the shooting, testified to the facts as given. The prisoner was examined in his own behalf. He presented a wretched appearance as he hobbled to the witness-stand. He was lame from rheumatism and his face bore traces of long-continued dissipation. He said that he was accustomed to sleep in the daytime. On the afternoon of the shooting he felt a hand in his pocket and found, as he thought, that Young was attempting to rob him of 45 cents which he had in his pocket. The money was not taken, but he drew his pistol to drive Young away when it accidentally went off.

Recorder Smyth, in his charge, said that the testimony would scarcely warrant a conviction of murder in the second degree. The Recorder sentenced Courtney to imprisonment for life in the State Prison.

A COMMITTEE TO SUPPRESS BUTTERINE. A petition signed by 125 dealers setting forth the fact that a mixture of butter and deodorized lard was continually sold as genuine butter to the detri-ment of consumers and of traders who dealt in genuine butter, gave occasion for action on the part of the New-York Mercantile Exchange yesterday. A the New-York Mercantile Exchange yesterday. A resolution was offered providing for the appointment of a committee to confer with the Attorney-General of the State and with the Board of Health and the District-Attorneys of New-York and Brooklyn for the suppression of the sale of butterine for genuine butter. Edward G. Burns opposed the resolution and the meeting itself. He said: "The poor consumer is getting this mock sympathy because it is supposed that he will generally come and help, the speculators out of the trouble they have cause it is supposed that he will generally come help the speculators out of the trouble they have not themselves into. This meeting is a mistake. There is no real honesty in it." Mr. Youmans said:

The resolution was adopted and a committee was appointed consisting of John S. Martin, William H. Duckworth, B. F. Van Volkenburgh, Louis Meadell and J. Scainan to carry out the wishes of the Exchange. A resolution was also adopted instructing the committee to announce that all cases of grievance reported would be investigated.

ELOPING WITH A CUSTOMER.

Martin Schiebner, proprietor of the Vienna Restaurant, at No. 19 Springfield-ave., Newark, complained in the Newark Police Court yesterday against his wife and Hubert Schlieber with whom she had cloped. Scheibner was married to his wife seven months ago. Three weeks ago Schileber began to patronize the restaurant and sometimes he sat at the same table with the proprietor and his wife. One morning Mrs. Scheibner, who is a tall, good-looking woman, humorously remarked that she and her husband had better separate whereupon Schlieber said: "Well, if you are going to separate I will take you, Mrs. Scheibner, with joy." The husband thought nothing of this, but on Wednesday he found that his wife and her mother had gone away and taken with them a considerable lot of personal property. He also found a note addressed to him by the wife stating that her delicate health would not permit of her undergoing an exciting interview and she had left without saying farewell. Yesterday she and Schlieber were traced to a house, No. 33 Prince-st., Newark, and a warrant of arrest was issued. ELOPING WITH A CUSTOMER.

se rved decision in the case.

In the court, yesterday, Judge Depue denied the motion for a new trial in the case of John Chisholm, the wife murderer, and sentenced him to be hanged on Thursday, November 22. He appointed the following jury to witness the execution: Dr. Peter V. Hewlett, Hugo C. Hendry, Charles Young, James A. Williams, William Pohl, H. W. Thorne, John J. Leidy, Joseph Knorr, Walter L. Mitchell, Joseph Atkinson and M. H. C. Vail. The counsel for Chisholm will carry the case to the Supreme Court on a writ of error.

LONG ISLAND.

ROCKVILLE CENTRE.—The Sunday-schools of the town of Hempstead held their quarterly convention last evening in St. Mark's Church. A number of subjects were discussed and an address was delivered by the Rev. J. L. Peck, on the successful Sunday-school convention. Delegates were present from all the Sunday-schools in the town.

FLUSHING.—John Miller, who said that he was in the brewing business in Cincinnati, visited Flush-ing about three weeks ago and married the only daughter of Mr. Hickman, a colored man. Ven-geance was threatened if he remained in the town, yesterday he mysteriously disappeared. The grief-stricken bride applied to a Justice of the Peace for a warrant for the arrest of her husband for deser-tion.

leaving a widow, his second wife, and four children by his first wife. Shortly after his second marriage he adopted Ella May Miller, and at his death left his entire property to his widow. The widow died in 1880, leaving her entire property to the adopted daughter, who died in 1882. Shortly after the death of Mrs. Miller, proceedings were instituted before the Queens County Surrogate by the chil-dren, and yesterday the estate was equally divided STATEN ISLAND. EDGEWATER.—Captain Daly and Joseph Pernder gast, the pugilists. Charles Johnson, the refere and William E. Harding, the backer of one of th and William E. Harding, the backer of one of the principals in the recent prize-fight here, were before Justice McCullough yesterday. The court-room was crowded with spectators. Harding pleaded not guilty and was paroled. Johnson asked for an adjournment, Perndergast's and Daly's counsel announced their willingness to proceed. The cases were adjourned until Monday.

WESTCHESTER COUNTY. TARRYTOWN.—The fall meeting of the Medical Society of the County of Westelaster was held yes-terday at the Vincent House.

YONKERS.—Coroner Mitchell held an inquest yes-terday on the body of Maggie Riley, the three-year-old daughter of John Riley, of Nepperhan-ave., who was found dead in her bed at an early hour on Monday morning. The verdict was that her death was caused by suffocation, but whether intentional or accidental the jury could not deter-mine.
